

IS801: ESF #1 Transportation
Final Exam

1. The mission of ESF #1 – Transportation is limited to monitoring and reporting on the status of and damage to the transportation infrastructure as a result of an incident.
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. Which agency serves as the ESF #1 coordinator?
 - a. Department of Transportation
 - b. Federal Emergency Management Agency
 - c. Department of Homeland Security
 - d. General Services Administration

3. Which of the following activities is included under the ESF #1 scope?
 - a. Providing alternative transportation sources after an incident.
 - b. Coordinating temporary alternative transportation solutions, as needed.
 - c. Making repairs to private-sector transportation infrastructure.
 - d. Enforcing mitigation activities among transportation stakeholders.

4. The ESF #1 Emergency Response Team (ERT):
 - a. Provides transportation equipment to augment State, local, and tribal resources.
 - b. Determines an incident's impact on the transportation infrastructure and the resulting impact to the Nation.
 - c. Provides resources and helps coordinate between State jurisdictions during multistate hurricane evacuations.
 - d. Develops a regional network to collect and report information on an actual or potential crisis situation that adversely affects transportation

5. The ESF #1 Evacuation Liaison Team (ELT) serves as an information clearinghouse and communication link between Federal and State emergency management, highway patrol, and transportation officials.
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. Which ESF #1 support agency helps prioritize, evaluate, and support restoration of domestic ports, shipping, waterways, and related systems and infrastructure?
 - a. U.S. Coast Guard
 - b. Transportation Security Administration
 - c. Department of Transportation
 - d. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

IS801: ESF #1 Transportation
Final Exam

7. The Department of Homeland Security provides assets to complement temporarily degraded or disrupted air navigation services capabilities, as requested by the Department of Transportation/Federal Aviation Administration.
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. Which agency supports ESF #1 by providing weather, storm surge, and dispersion forecasts?
 - a. Department of Energy
 - b. U.S. Department of Commerce
 - c. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
 - d. Environmental Protection Agency

9. The ESF #1 Crisis Management Center (CMC):
 - a. Directs air traffic control throughout the country in case of a national emergency.
 - b. Directs specific response activities, such as managing and coordinating air navigation services or the Ready Reserve Fleet
 - c. Conducts incident management response training for Regional Emergency Transportation Representatives.
 - d. Works with ESF #1 supporting agencies to manage information and recommend response actions.

10. The Regional Emergency Transportation Coordinator (RETCO) and Regional Emergency Transportation Representative (RETREP) provide regional DOT transportation support during non-emergency periods in contingency planning efforts.
 - a. True
 - b. False